WOODWARD HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

We have tried in this 1959 Saga to create an impression for you . . . as freshmen, you walked into Woodward uncertain but eager to plant yourselves into her history . . . once the year commenced you coped with social and academic problems which at times seemed insurmountable . . . but your high school memories also included the excitement you felt at the basketball games, the suspense you went through during exam time, the tingling feeling you experienced when receiving your junior rings, the dreamy music you danced to at the prom . . . now, as seniors, you step out of Woodward, this time to leave high school behind you, looking forward to using your education for the betterment of yourself and the world . . .

O little feet! that such long years
Must wander on through hopes and fears,
Must ache and bleed beneath your load;
I, nearer to the wayside inn
Where toil shall cease and rest begin,
Am weary, thinking of your road!

Dedication

Thirty years ago when the doors of Woodward High School opened, the following seven teachers were members of the faculty: Miss Miller, Miss McClure, Mrs. Ersig, Mr. Staneart, Mr. Phipps, Mr. Thomae, Mr. Van Tassell.

It is to these teachers who have faithfully served us each day that we dedicate this Saga. Surely, they are leaving their footprints in the sands of time by influencing countless lives.

Administration

Principal's Message

At the close of my first full year at Woodward, I wish to thank all for their splendid co-operation. It has been a pleasure to share your work and enthusiasm.

To the Seniors—Best wishes and may your life be bountiful and dedicated for the betterment of society.

For the future let us cherish great pride for our school and work hard to achieve our goals.

TOGETHER WE GO FORWARD.

Robert E. Kelly

Principal

Mr. Virgil Sloan, assistant principal in charge of general admissions, lends a guiding hand to boys with school and social problems.

Miss Ethel Kerlin, assistant principal in charge of instruction, supervises student placement by test interpretation.

Advising clubs and organizations is one of the duties of Mr. Raymond McNeill, assistant principal in charge of activities.

Any girl in need of help will find Miss Amie Miller, assistant principal and dean of girls, an understanding counselor.

College Counselor

Mrs. Maxine Mills, in her position as college counselor, is a guiding light to students with problems concerning higher education. At group meetings or individual conferences, Mrs. Mills provides information on colleges and available scholarships.

The Office Force

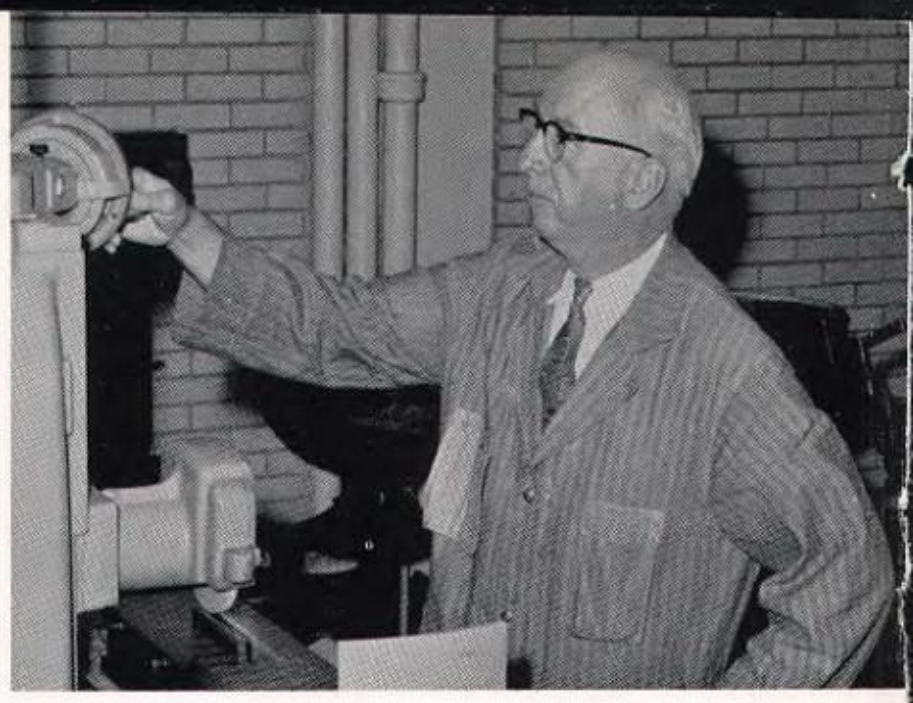
Faculty

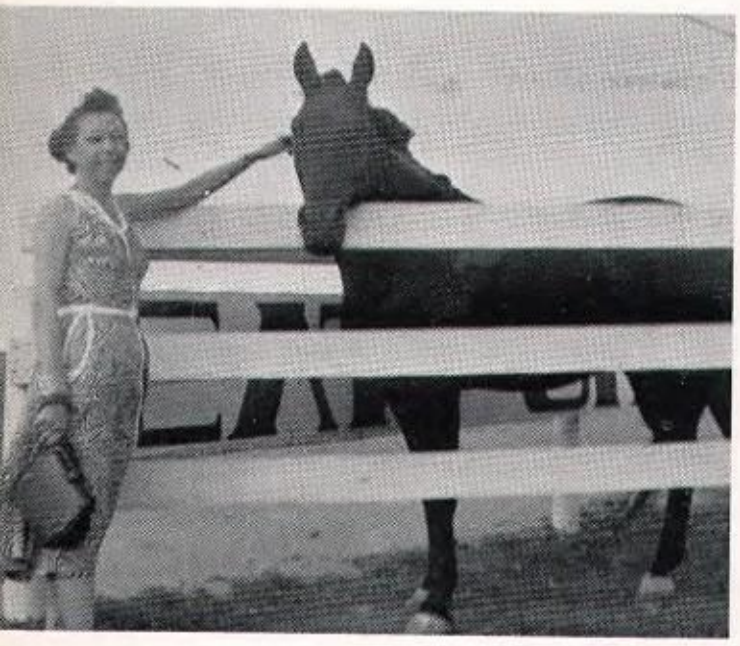
Mr. Darrell Clay, orientation and drivers' training instructor, enjoys fishing.

Inspiring enthusiasm at one of our football mass meetings is Mr. Richard Gordon, history teacher and line coach.



Mr. Paul Thomae adjusts this machine for his machine shop class.

Mr. Robert Van Cleve and Mrs. Vera Mocman display one of the many visual aids used in teaching their biology classes.



Two of Mrs. Crystal Easley's hobbies are horses and traveling. Mrs. Easley teaches business.

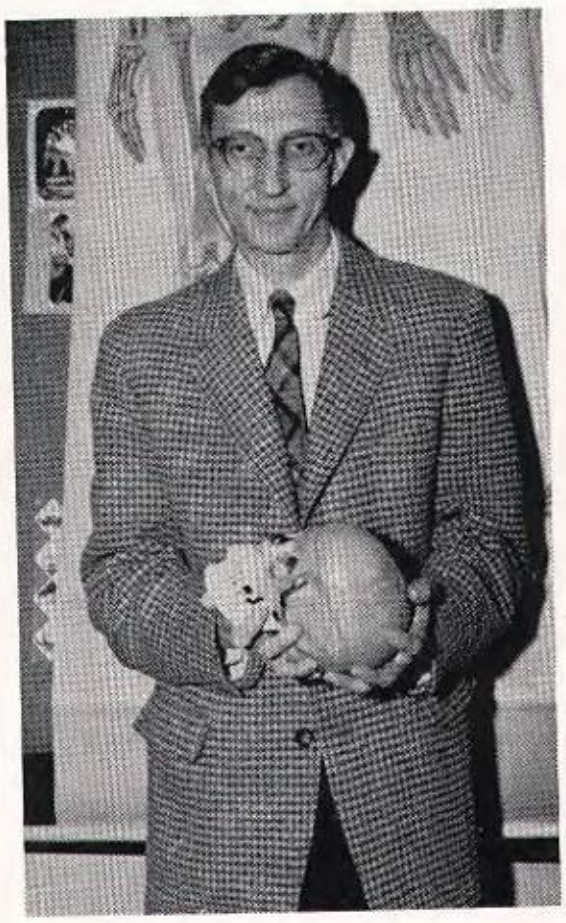
An occasional break for a friendly chat is welcomed by English teachers, Miss Joan Hagerty and Miss Mona Abboud.

Typing and shorthand teacher, Miss Marian Cooper, works on her needlework hobby.

These three schoolmasters, who are masters of golf as well, are Mr. Clyde Van Tassel, business teacher, Mr. Arnold Brown, mathematics instructor, and Mr. David Krost, science teacher.

Mr. Henry Fearnside demonstrates to his woodshop class the cutting of a board.

Mrs. Sarah Feldstien, English teacher, finds entertaining friends a pleasant pastime.



Instructing his pupils on the structure of the skull is Mr. George Rohrer, physiology teacher.

"Am I on the air?" asks Mrs. Bernice Donovan, radio production, and English instructor.

Music is everything to Mr. Edgar Sorton, our music instructor.

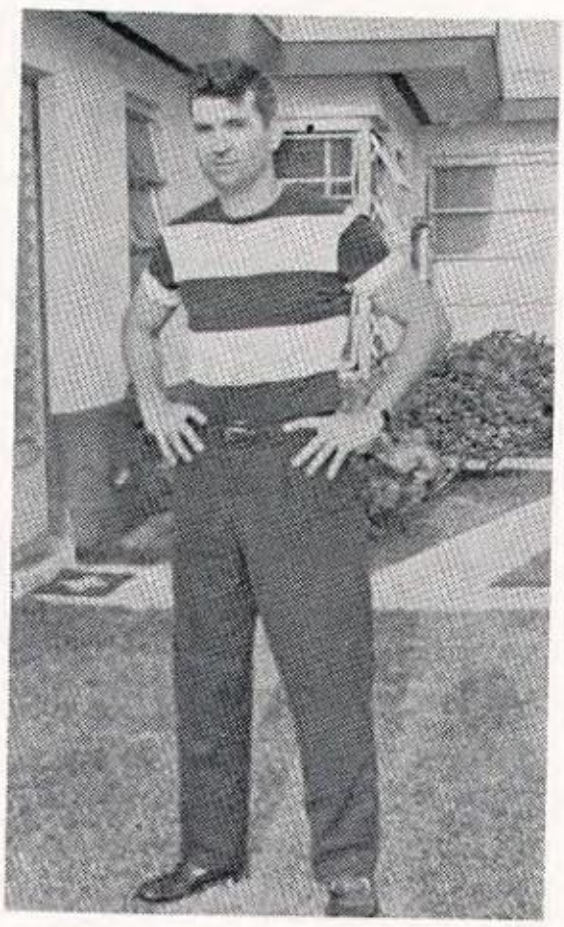
Mrs. Sally Tompkins, English and home economics teacher, enjoys being with her two children.

Mrs. Lillian Casey examines the new English books purchased this year.

Mr. Theodore Yaecker, teacher of special education, relaxes while fishing at the lake.

Mr. Samuel Rogolsky, orientation teacher, and Mr. James Wilusz, geometry instructor, enjoy a day at the golf course.

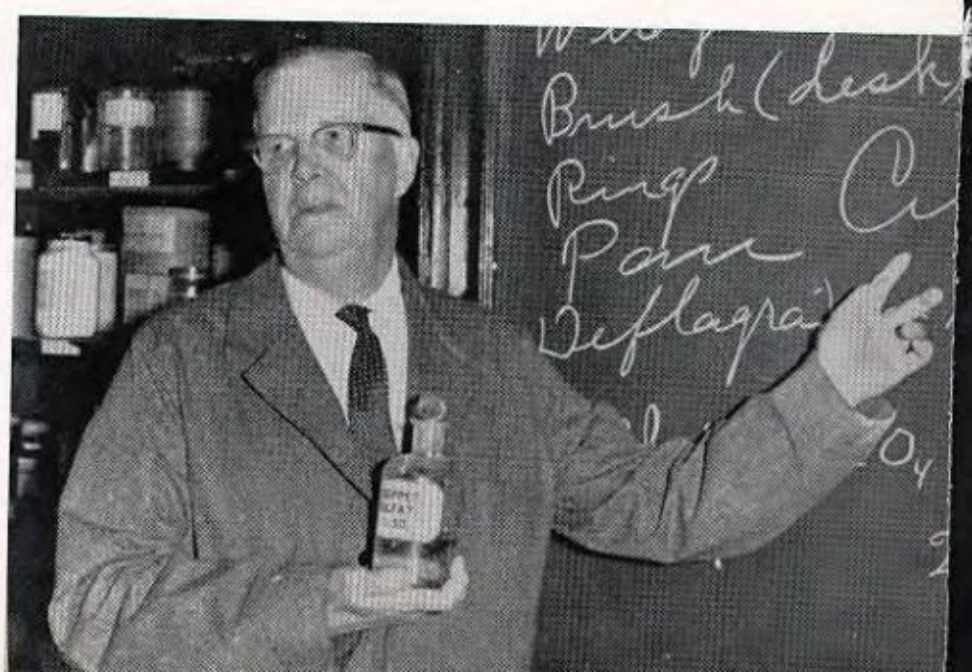
Miss Belle Joseph and Mrs. Bessie Burkett, sisters, find that a rake is more useful than mathematics when it's time to rake leaves.



Movies, music and sports are favorite pastimes of Mr. Don Martin, physical education instructor.

Mr. Joseph Horvath finds a globe useful when teaching history.

Mr. LeMaxie Glover, art instructor, sketches Mr. John Wakelin, photographer.

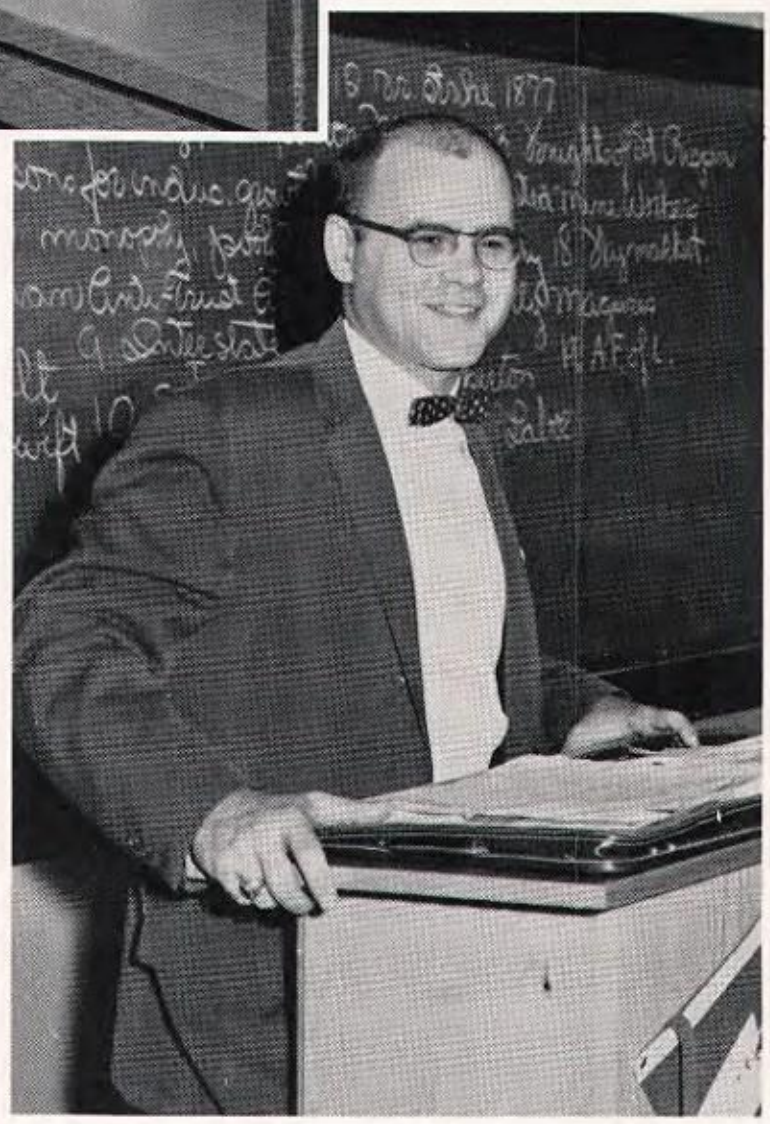


Chemistry teacher, Mr. Charles Staneart, teaches the properties of this substance to his class.

Mrs. Maxine Mills uses this model of a Shakespearean theater in her English classes.

Home economics teacher, Mrs. Nancy Lowe, likes to cook in her new kitchen.

Miss Marjorie Hamilton, business teacher, claims she's happiest when near, on, or in the water.



Mr. James Henahan teaches American history and government from his rostrum.

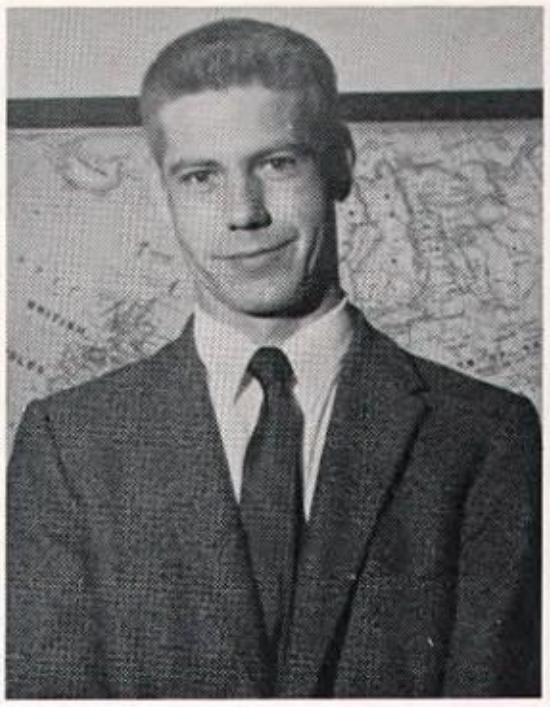
Fishing is a favorite pastime of Mr. Joseph Stobinski, print shop instructor.

Miss Hazel Coy, school nurse, is always ready to aid a sick pupil.

Mrs. Katherine MacKinnon fashions a shirt for her husband from this MacKinnon plaid.

Miss Angela Abair, home economics teacher, enjoys teaching her classes family living.

History teacher, Mr. Arthur Wilkowski, finds pleasure in reading, sports, and music.

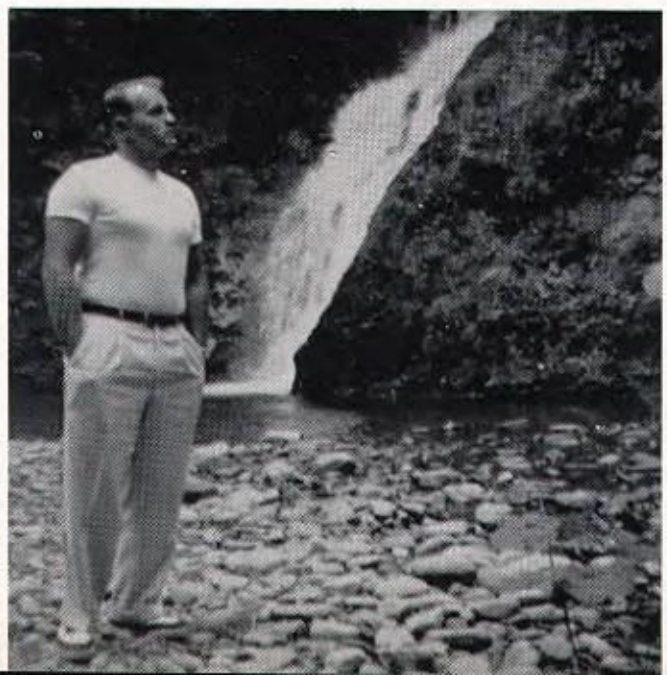


A visit to Colorado was a memorable experience for Miss Betty Nelson, English teacher.

Mr. Leo Robie points out a shipping route between England and the United States to his orientation class.

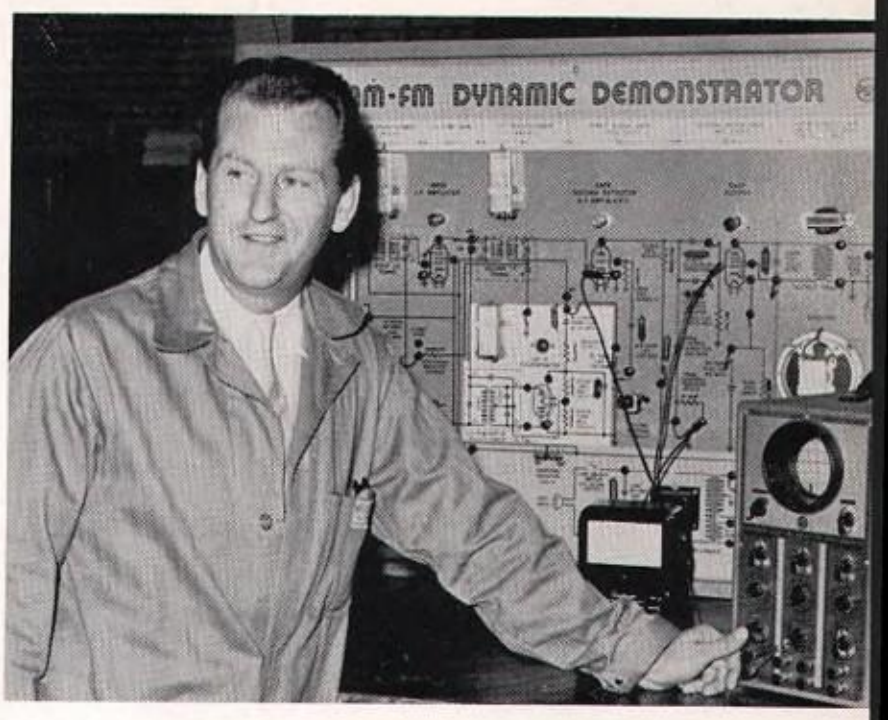
Taking his children to the park on Sundays is a pleasure for Mr. Lewis Cross, history teacher.

Mr. Sylvester Smith, physical education instructor, enjoys this scenic landscape.



Mrs. Elizabeth Ollendorf and Miss Catherine McClure, gym instructors, Mrs. Marie Ersig, English teacher, and Miss Camilla Savage, social studies teacher, enjoy a hand of canasta during their lunch hour.

Mrs. Catherine Manton, librarian, is assisted by Mrs. Nellie Huber in looking up information for students in the library.

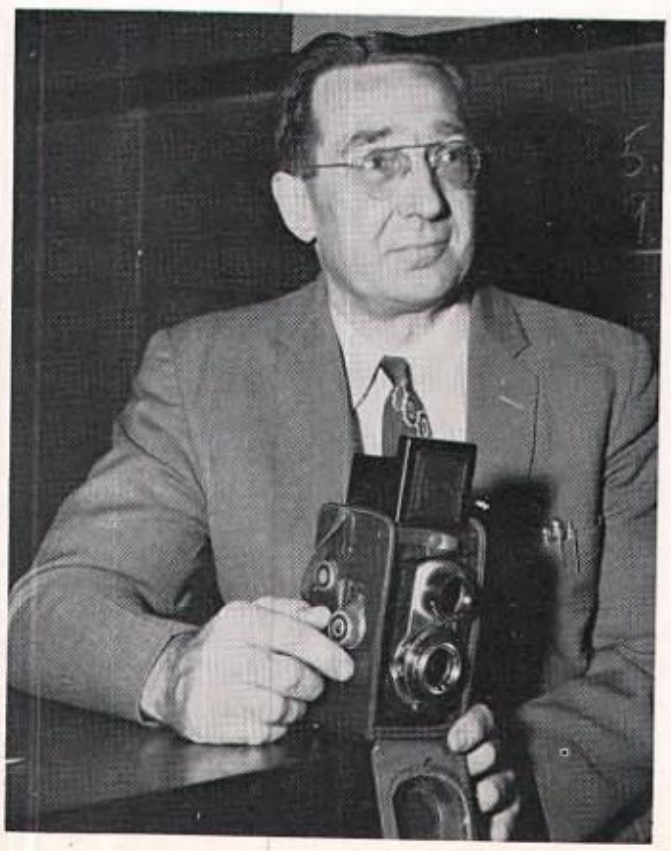


Mr. Roman Scherer uses this diagram to instruct his pupils in electronics.

A round of golf appeals to mathematics and German teacher, Mrs. Bianca Russell.

Directing a band isn't the easiest teaching position as Mr. Samuel will tell you.

"Watch the birdie," advises Mr. Fred Fisher, mathematics teacher.



Mr. Lou Meszaros, general science teacher, is Woodward's new head football coach.

Mr. O. M. Thompson, architectural drawing teacher, is a photographer during his "time-off."

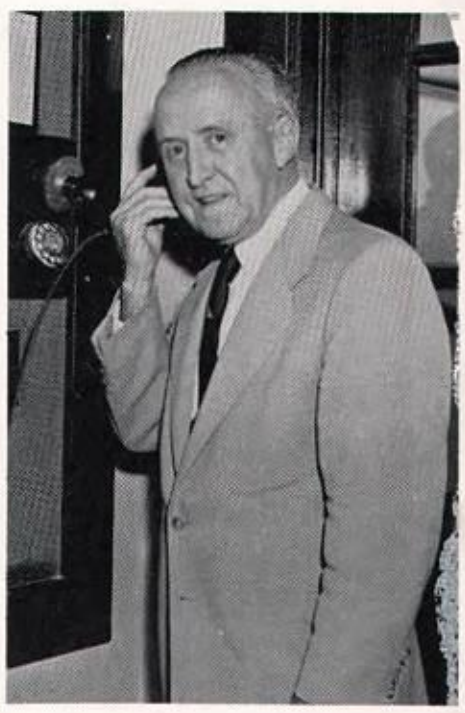
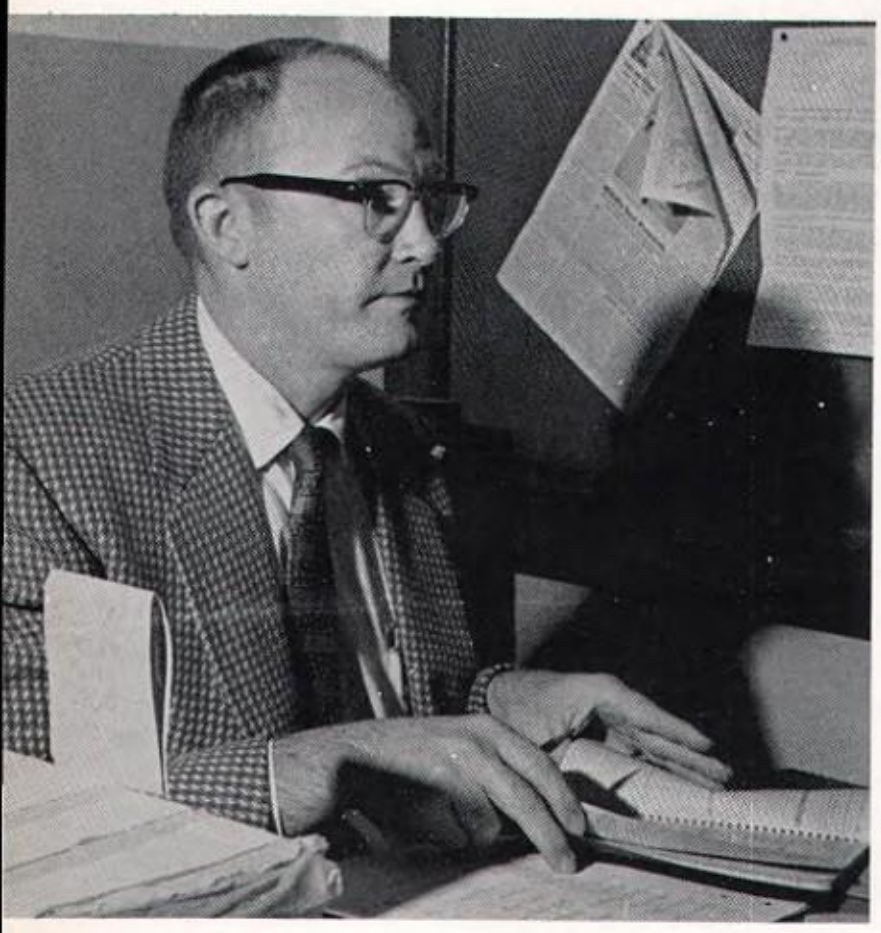
Photography and collecting dolls from foreign countries are two hobbies enjoyed by Mrs. Isla Van Vranken, business teacher.

Working in his workship is a favorite pastime of Mr. Joseph Dence, bookkeeping instructor.

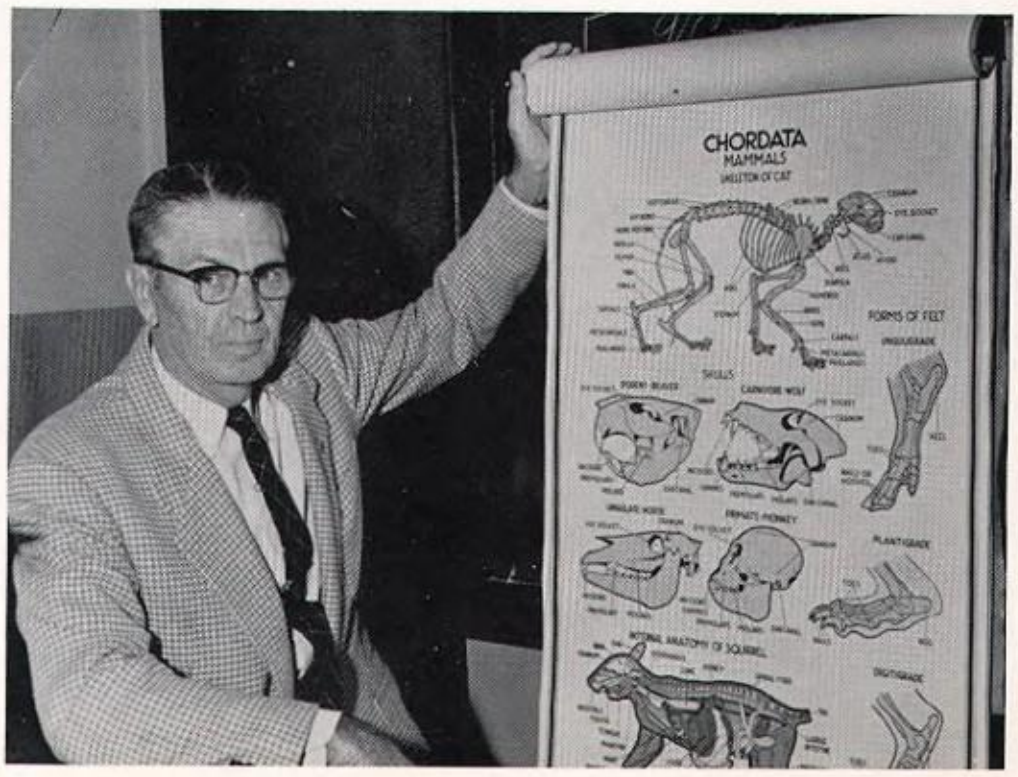


Bridge and golf are favorite pastimes of Mr. Howard Phipps, Latin and history teacher.

Mr. Robert Geis, history teacher, is a loyal Woodward fan.

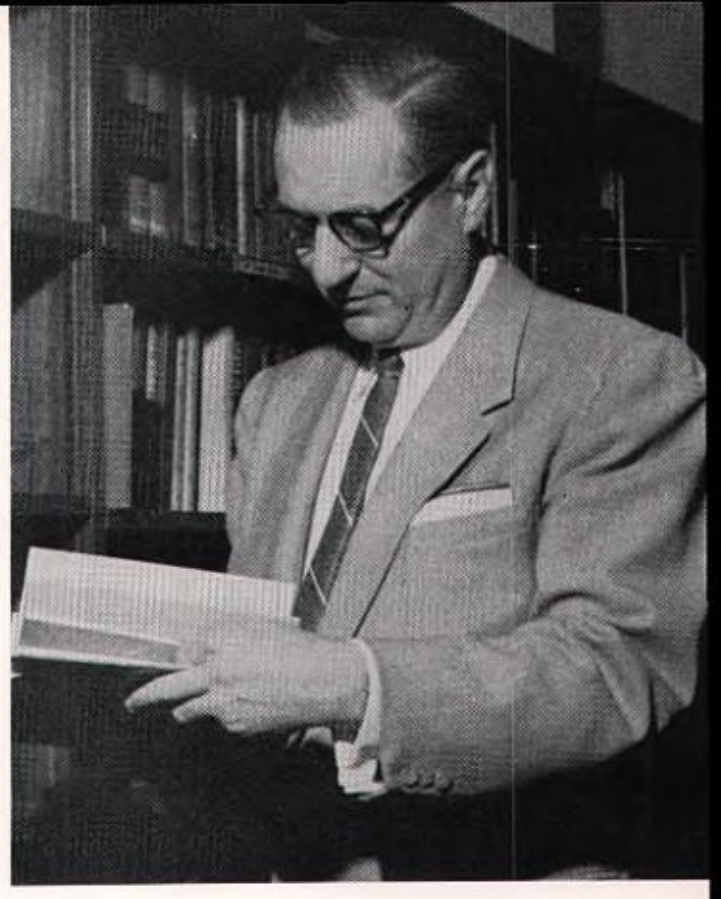


Mr. Charles Matthews instructs our future automobile mechanics.



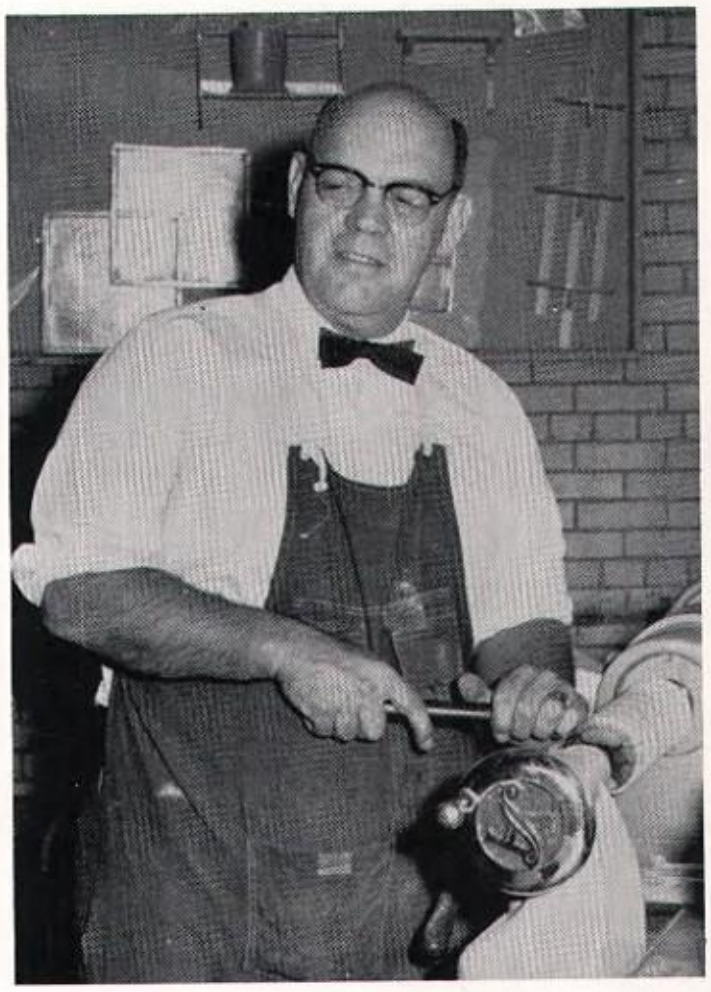
Mr. Lincoln Clark uses this visual aid in his general science class.

Mootz candies rate number one with Mrs. Dorothy Nicklin, English instructor.



Mr. Forrest England, orientation instructor, checks a date in one of our library's reference books.

Pointing to a topic of discussion, Mrs. Grace Kellermeier explains the history of this man to her English class.



Mr. Eugene Gfell instructs his industrial arts pupils in lathe.

Mrs. Thelma White relaxes between her English classes.

Playing the piano is a favorite hobby of Mrs. Margaret Olmstead, mathematics teacher.

The school year began with a flourish of activity for the senior class. Senior pictures, first on the calendar of events, were the topic of conversation. This was closely followed by the School Spirit Contest in which the class emerged victorious. Then, during the Christmas holidays, many seniors participated in the planned activity, caroling. Later, the seniors presented the class play. All were invited to attend and the production was a huge success.

The Junior-Senior Prom took its place among their most treasured memories. Before they knew it, the day of the banquet arrived. The highlight of this long-awaited moment was the distribution of the "1959 Saga." Finally, the most important occasion was here; the class of '59 put on the traditional blue and white caps and gowns for their commencement ceremony. After four years of laughter, heartaches, and hard work, they were ready to seek new horizons.

In their physics class Peggy Loo, Tom Sohocki, and Dennis Sorge cope with the problem of finding the specific gravity of different substances.

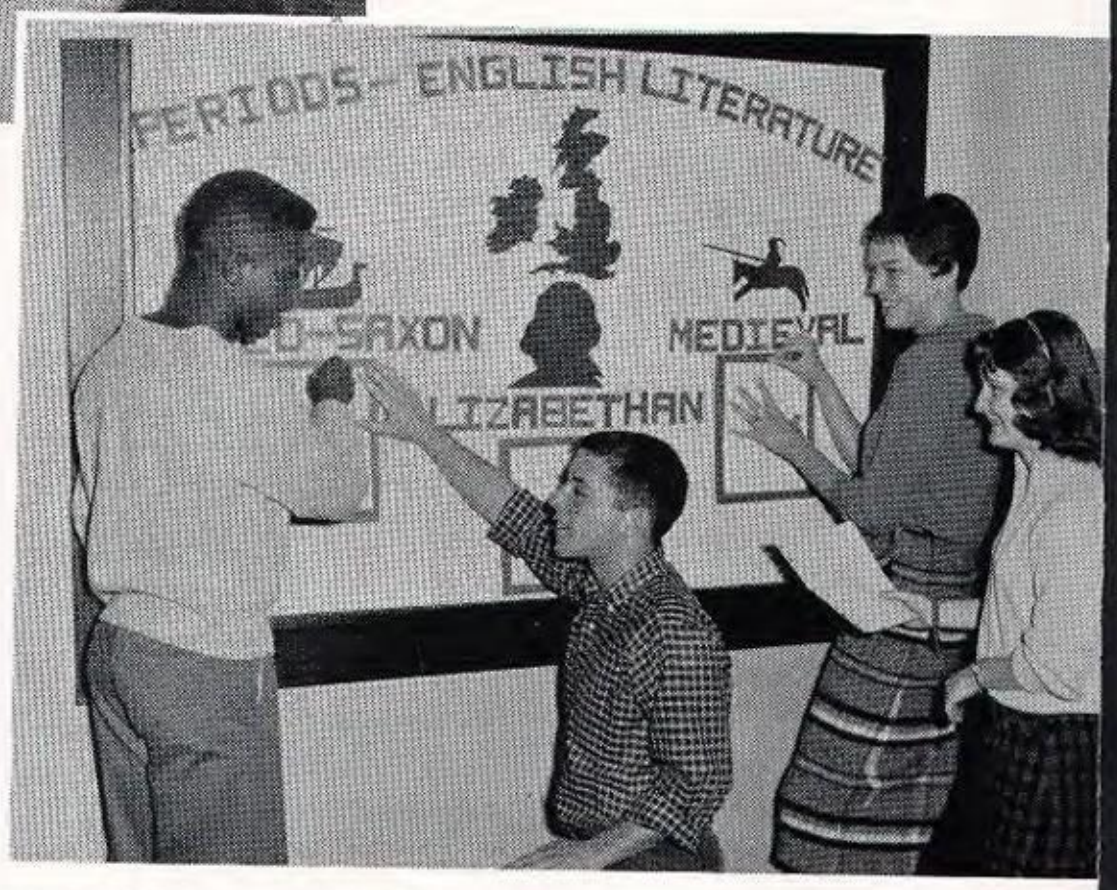
Edward Hammer and Donna Kikoski learn about the principles of triangles in Miss Joseph's trigonometry class.



Robert Hawkins, Skip Ray, Bonnie Cook, and Marilyn Lacy undertake one of the many projects in Senior English.

Examining this skeleton displayed in Mr. Rohrer's physiology class are Jerry Davis and Janet Riter.

This year because of the size of their class, the juniors were able to do things in a big way. Campaigning for class elections was ingenious with colorful posters and clever slogans. More than 350 juniors were proud to be the first to purchase the new standard class ring. Co-operating with the seniors, they helped to make the Junior-Senior Prom a memorable one. Junior Week was filled with fun and frolic for all who participated. The activities included dress-up day, color day, a roast, and a dance during which the junior king and queen were crowned. The juniors had a tremendous, eventful year.

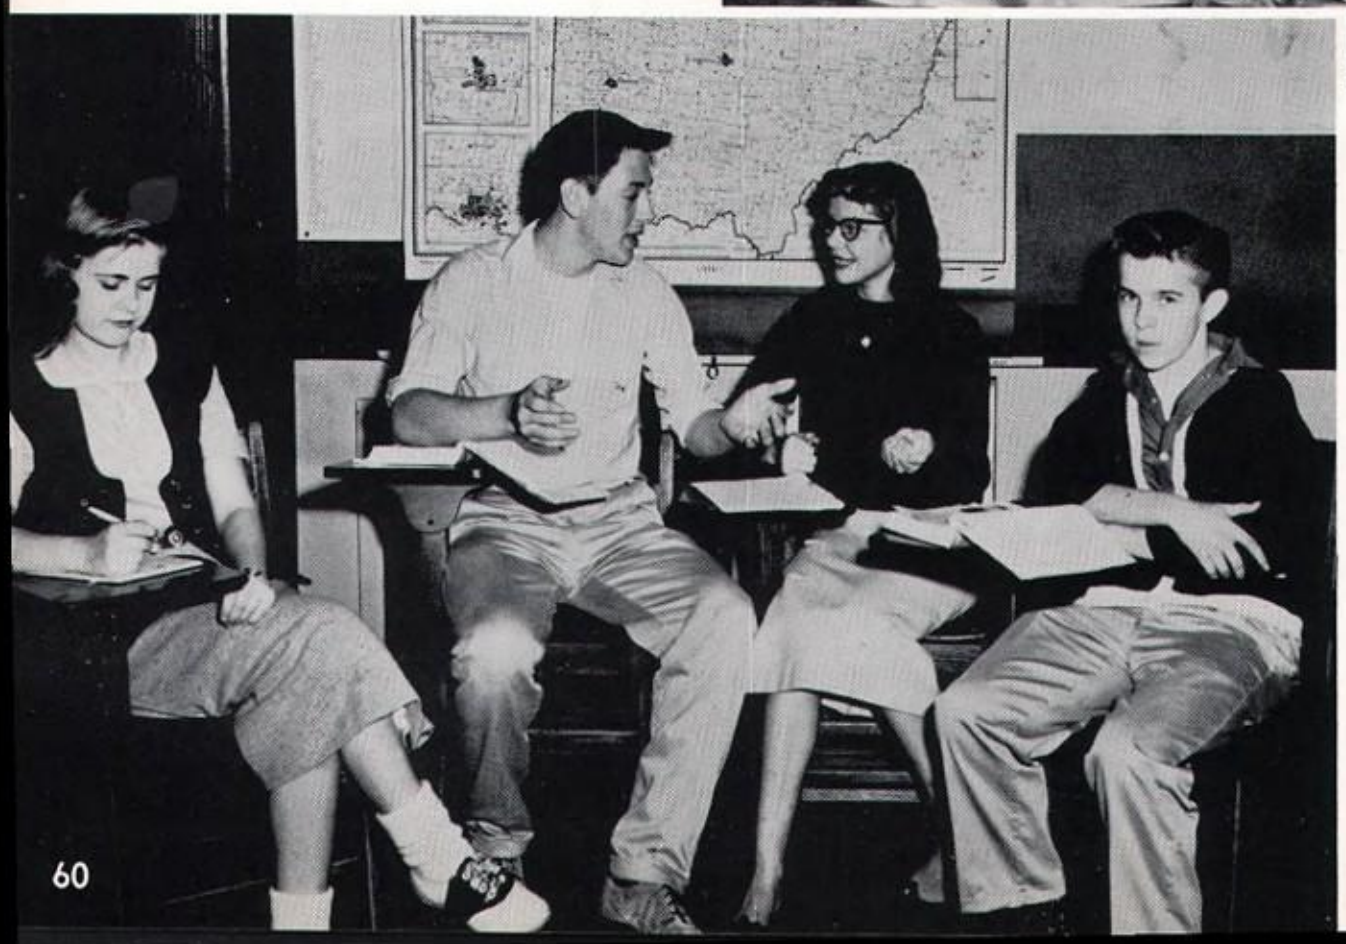
John Hussman, Mark Fischer, and George Cole are engrossed in their experiment: distillation of water.



Panel discussions in American history provide very lively debate for Joyce Zdunczyk, Glenn Hammer, Mary Jane McGee, and Val Szczypkowski.

Sophomore Officers

Back for a second year was the 1958-59 sophomore class. They displayed enthusiasm and originality in their election campaign. Because of the number of qualified candidates, voters found it difficult to select class officers. After a close race, the above people were inducted into office. Proof of their capability was evident in the success of the annual Sophomore Dance. Doing as well as they did over the year was attributed to the help of the advisers, Mr. Leo Robie and Mrs. Katherine MacKinnon.

STANDING: Mike Saba, Jerry Cichanski, Charles Shumaker.

Wide-eyed and uncertain, our 600 freshmen entered Woodward only dimly aware of the competition for leadership and scholastic honors. The above Student Council members proved themselves willing to support and to participate in school activities. The freshmen, having placed first in the Class Challenge Week contest, demonstrated that they will be another successful class.

Woodward's alumni can rest assured that this 1958-59 freshman class will continue to keep the "blue-and-white" standards high.

'59 Saga

A room piled high with pictures and layout sheets . . . brain storm sessions . . . appointments with photographers . . . the unpopular task of writing copy . . . co-operation of the faculty . . . cheerful smiles . . . burning the midnight oil to complete a difficult layout . . . a frantic staff trying to meet deadlines . . . the desire to produce a yearbook with memorable scenes and friendly faces . . . these are the ingredients used by the yearbook staff in making the 1959 SAGA.

A happy moment for Mrs. Sally Tompkins, Adviser, and Peggy Loo, Editor-in-Chief of the Saga, was preparing the first shipment of pages for the yearbook.

Mary Selich, Club Editor, and Kay Marzec, Business Manager, glance up from their work to give the photographer a big smile.

Evidently the photograph meets the approval of Jane Hauser, Girls' Sports Editor, and Jānis Baumanis, Boys' Sports Editor.

Staff

Judy McLennan and Sheron Esterly, Senior and Junior Art Editors respectively, enter the Saga Office with their latest sketches.

Lois Weissenberger, Underclassman Editor, Pat Spychala and Marilyn Jacob, Senior Editors, hold a conference to pool their ideas.

"How should we crop this picture?" asks Johnny Russell of Sandy West. Both are Junior Co-Editors.

'59 Tattler

Phyllis Wrzesinski, Editor-in-Chief of the Tattler, and Mrs. Marie Ersig, Adviser, make a final proofreading before the paper goes to press.

What would Friday be without the TATTLER? Each day the TATTLER staff works diligently to prepare the weekly newspaper for publication. In order to make the paper interesting to all students and a lasting record of important events, the news is covered faithfully and accurately by energetic reporters. Congratulations to the TATTLER staff for a job well done!

Janet Spencer, News Editor, points out an amusing article to Maxine Drees, Assistant Editor, and Barbara Szelagowski, Girls' Sports Editor.

Rose Marie Lewandowski, Interviews, and Tony Arvanitis, Inquiring Reporter, add another Tattler to the bulletin board.

Staff

Three heads are better than one, Rodney Mohon, Column News, Jim Wiley, Exchange Editor, and Jackie Molaska, Column Feature, decide.

Tom Grzywinski, Sports Editor, (seated), and John Oien, Assistant Sports Editor, are completing another action-packed sports article.

The Woodward band began an active year displaying both school spirit and skills as they performed during half-time at football games and by providing music for the mass meetings. In the autumn they sponsored a show featuring Woodward talent.

The annual band concert, which was held in February, had a new attraction—ballet. The highlight of the concert came as the dancers pirouetted to "The Nutcracker Suite."

Members of the Woodward Chapter of the National Honor Society are senior students who have excelled in scholarship during their high school careers. Their goal is to build strong characters in themselves and others, stimulate scholarship, encourage leadership, and serve their school, community, and country.

Induction of new members into the Honor Society was held in an impressive candle-lighting ceremony in December. The students who were inducted are: Tom Bollin, Sharon Clay, Susan Gaertner, Barbara Gospodarek, Judith McLennan, Joanne Nieckarz, Joanne Saba, Janet Spencer, Mary Alice Steinart, and Lois Weissenberger.

The Astronomical Society was formed this year for students desiring to gain knowledge concerning the celestial bodies of our universe. Being the only science club at Woodward, the Society will act as an incentive toward developing interest in the field of science.

The newly formed Bible Club takes its theme from Timothy I, 4:12—"Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believer." The members encourage Christian fellowship on our campus and sponsor Christian activities.

Classroom representatives assemble in the auditorium for their meetings.

The first and most important task of this year's Student Council was to establish a new constitution for Woodward's student government. The classroom representatives then set out to develop a better faculty-student relationship at Woodward. This plan was put into action with the "Apple-for-Teacher Day" and with a panel discussion of several teachers and students. To improve the appearance of the halls, the Student Council sponsored a monthly bulletin board contest which proved successful. In the latter part of the school year, the Council began work on a handbook containing useful information for Woodward students.

We Can Be Proud

At the start of the season the Polar Bears had a new look, with the dynamic coaching staff headed by Coaches Meszaros and Gordon. Both of these men came to Woodward with outstanding records.

The team showed great fight, and we were victorious in the first two games. The second of these was our first city win in five years. Woodward then slipped into a losing streak, but the fellows retained their courage and came back to win the last game.

Several factors handicapped our progress during the football season. Injuries to key players and a lack of size and depth dimmed our chances. However, the boys fought bravely and displayed the kind of fortitude that marks a great team.

The squad did a commendable job and we are proud of them. With a large number of returning veterans and a plentiful supply of new talent, our chances for a good team next season are excellent.

WOODWARD—26 FINDLAY—8

Opening their season with a "bang," the Polar Bears trounced Findlay by a wide margin. The Bears' backfield showed some fine running, with Dave Swantek and Don Kornowa each chalking up two touchdowns. Another highlight was a 60-yard pass play from Tom Grzywinski to John Gregory that carried the pigskin to the Trojans' 1-yard line. The alert Woodward defense recovered three Findlay fumbles and intercepted three passes.

WOODWARD—26 MACOMBER—6

After an absence of two years, Woodward re-entered the City League by smashing Macomber. This was our first city win in five years. The Bear backfield showed power as Dave Swantek scored one tally, Wendell Boyd gained 100 yards, and Don Kornowa tallied three touchdowns and chalked up 142 yards.

Don Kornowa breaks loose for a spectacular 59-yard scoring scamper against Macomber.

WOODWARD—12 SCOTT—30

Taking on the Scott Bulldogs, the Bears emerged with their first defeat of the season. The Polar Bears seemed to have trouble getting and keeping the ball. The first Woodward tally came when Tom Grzywinski threw a pass to John Abrams, who scampered into the end zone. Woodward then scored another touchdown when Don Kornowa dashed across the goal line.

WOODWARD—18 CLAY—20

The after-touchdown conversion gave the Clay Eagles their winning margin. Late in the first half Wendell Boyd tallied for the Bears on a tricky touchdown run. In the second half Don Kornowa took a kick-off and raced 85 yards into the end zone. He added to this spectacular performance by scoring another touchdown before the final whistle blew.

WOODWARD—6 CENTRAL—20

The traditional homecoming game went to the Central Irish. The rugged Central line managed to hold the Polar Bears to only one touchdown. This tally was scored early in the second half when Don Kornowa raced 68 yards into pay dirt. The Irish, however, were able to capitalize on some of our miscues despite the hard defense put up by the hustling Bears.

WOODWARD—8 DEVILBISS—48

After the Tigers opened the game with two quick touchdowns, the Polar Bears put together a strong scoring drive that was topped by Don Kornowa's 10-yard touchdown scamper. In the hard fought second half, the scrappy Bears failed to push across any more tallies; but the Tigers were able to score 28 additional points as their greater size and depth carried them to a win.

WOODWARD—6 LIBBEY—36

The Libbey Cowboys' backfield proved too much for the Bears, who were handed another setback. To chalk up their only tally, Woodward went on a 73-yard touchdown drive. Don Kornowa scored with his 37-yard sprint into the end zone. The Polar Bears drove deep into Libbey territory several times but failed to tally any additional points.

JIM WOODBURY

DALE DUTKOWSKI

WOODWARD—18 SCOTT—26

In the first half the redhot Polar Bears tallied two touchdowns, one each by Don Kornowa and Tom Grzywinski. The inspired defense held the Bulldogs to only one first down in the first two periods. When the Bears returned after the intermission, they seemed to have lost their spark. Scott was able to chalk up four touchdowns while Woodward scored only one. This last touchdown was gained on the fine running of Wendell Boyd.

WOODWARD—14 WAITE—16

Waite opened their scoring on a blocked punt. After having two thrusts halted within the Waite 10-yard line, the Polar Bears finally drove into the end zone. After Wendell Boyd's touchdown, Dave Swantek added another tally to put Woodward ahead. The Indians then chalked up a safety. Our defense stopped numerous Indian drives, but the East Siders pushed across the winning points in the closing minutes of the game.

WOODWARD—7 BEDFORD—6

The Bears closed the season as they opened it—with a victory! After taking the kick-off, the Bears marched 85 yards on a sparkling touchdown drive that was capped by Dave Swantek. A Tom Grzywinski pass to Wendell Boyd for the conversion proved to be the winning margin. The hustling defense held the Kicking Mules to only six points. The seniors were able to win their last game!

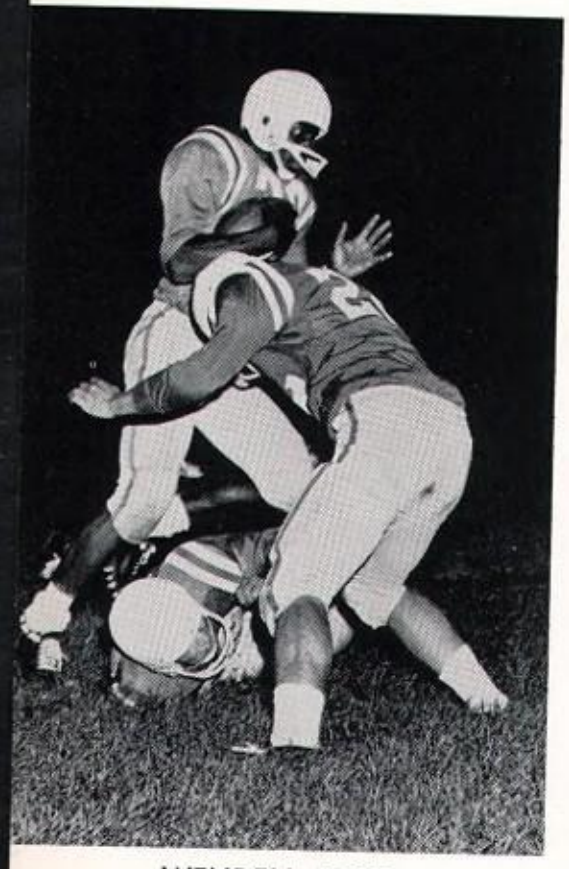
DON KORNOWA



WENDELL BOYD

DON KORNOWA

Don Kornowa was honored with the position of offensive halfback on the All-City first team. He was the only Woodward player to cop a position on the first stringers. A speedy halfback, he scored in every game he played. His defensive play also earned him an honorable mention spot as a defensive back.

WENDELL BOYD

Our other halfback, Wendell Boyd, received honorable mention as an offensive halfback. A very powerful runner, he could be counted on when the going was the toughest.

JOHN GREGORY

John Gregory made honorable mention as a defensive end. Even though a knee injury kept him out of action for a while, he did an outstanding job for the Polar Bears.

JOHN PATTERSON

John Patterson earned an honorable mention spot as a defensive back. His amazingly hard tackles were a real asset to the team's defensive play.

DICK McGEE

Dick McGee received honorable mention as a center. His rugged line play was of great value to the Polar Bears. Dick, who is a senior, served as co-captain of the team with Wendell Boyd.

Basketball

A Commendable Record

The Woodward Polar Bears had a successful basketball season this year as they compiled a 10-8 record. After two disappointing seasons, the hard work of the coaches began to pay off as we won third place in the City League.

The team was endowed with a number of returning veterans, headed by Howard Komives, who placed on the All-City first team as a sophomore last year. However, we also had an outstanding group of juniors who formed the majority of the team. Although they lacked varsity experience, they quickly acquired admirable poise.

Since most of our high scorers are returning next year, the team will have an abundance of offensive power as well as the less tangible qualities that come from experience. In addition, our lightweight squad will send up some bright prospects who will fill out the roster. Having all this talent, next year's team ought to have an outstanding season.

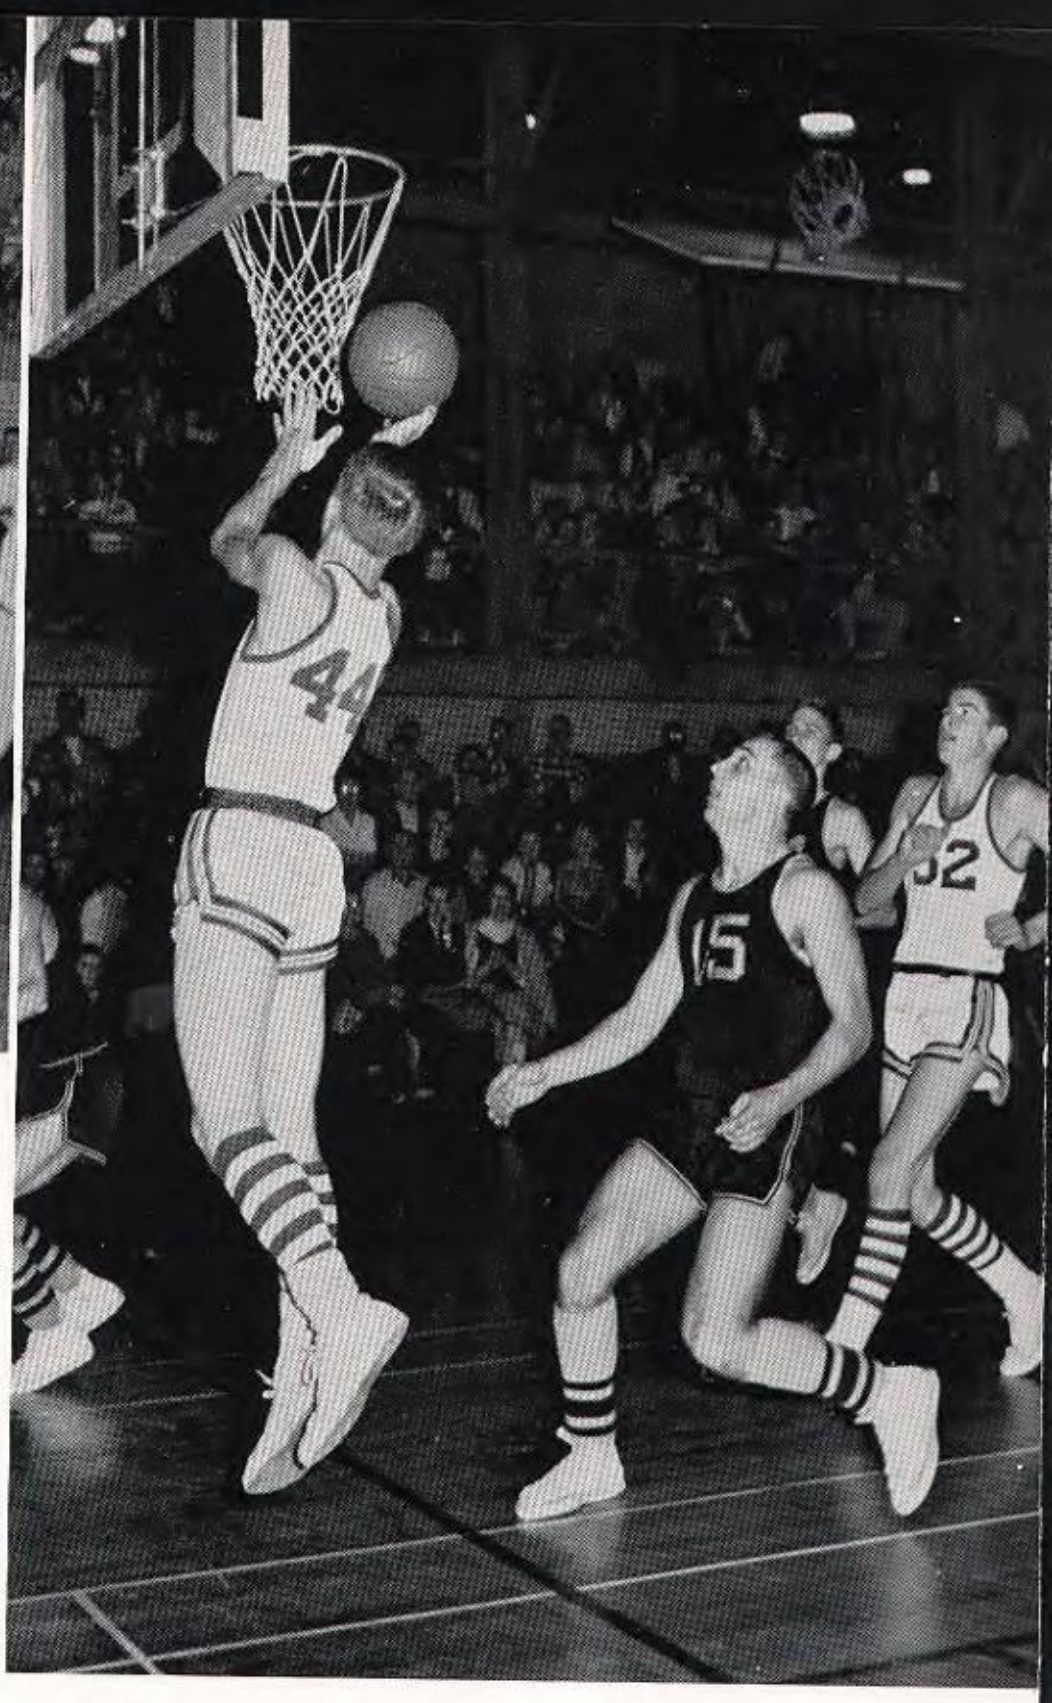
John Gregory turns in a fine defensive play against Sylvania.

WOODWARD—81 SYLVANIA BURNHAM—46

Taking a cue from the snowy weather, the Polar Bears snowballed the Wildcats to cop the opening game of the season. Last year's City League scoring champion, Howard Komives, paced the Bears' offense. Komives's spectacular performance of 36 markers came on 15 field goals and 6 free throws in three quarters of play. Other high scorers were Terry Provonsha with 19 points and Elliott Mansour with 11.



Tom Grzywinski drives in for a layup against Macomber.

WOODWARD—59 CENTRAL CATHOLIC—66

Central's experienced quintet jumped to a quick start and led 31-19 at the halftime. However, the fired-up Bears refused to wilt and battled back to a 48-47 advantage at the end of three periods. In the thrilling last quarter, the Polar Bears lost a little of their steam and the Irish moved ahead to stay. Leading the Bears' tallying were Terry Provonsha with 19 and Howard Komives with 17.

WOODWARD—57 DEVILBISS—50

After trailing at halftime 23-28, the Polar Bears began to spark and went ahead for keeps in the third quarter. The aggressive DeVilbiss defense was guilty of numerous fouls, and Woodward capitalized on them to gain the winning margin. Howard Komives with 22 points, Terry Provonsha with 10, and Tony Arvanitis with 9 topped the Bears' scoring.

WOODWARD—42 DEFIANCE—64

The Polar Bears lacked their usual sparkle as they were defeated at Defiance. The Bulldogs turned in solid second and third period performances to insure their victory. Woodward scoring was well scattered as the team played without its high scorer. Terry Provonsha with 9 points and Don Kornowa with 8 paced the Bears.

WOODWARD—49 SCOTT—51

The Polar Bears cooled off the Bulldogs' high-scoring center, Ray Wolford, but the Scott outside shooters had a good game. The closely fought contest was decided when the Bulldogs outscored the Bears by 17 points in the third quarter. Howard Komives chalked up 23 and Terry Provonsha 17.

WOODWARD—58 WHITMER—28

The Polar Bears jumped to a quick lead and increased their margin as they romped to a victory over the Whitmer Panthers. The taller Bears swept the boards and utilized their height to the best advantage. Woodward was paced by Howard Komives's 27 points and Tony Arvanitis's 8.

WOODWARD—62 CLAY—58

Led by Terry Provonsha's 22 points in the first two periods, the Polar Bears rushed to a 36-20 halftime advantage. They continued the romp and held a 20-point lead after three periods. The scrappy Eagles put up a good fight and staged a last quarter rally, but the Bears pulled through. Terry Provonsha finished with 30 tallies and Howard Komives collected 20.

WOODWARD—71 WAITE—51

Howard Komives tied the all-time City League scoring record as the Bears rolled over the Indians. This tremendous performance was attained on 16 field goals and 11 free throws for a total of 43 points. Waite put up a close battle in the first half, but the Bears, sparked by Komives's 28 point sceond half performance, ran away with the game. Don Kornova gave a valuable boost as he connected for 13 markers.

WOODWARD—45 ST. FRANCIS—42

This hard-fought game was a thriller as the fired-up Knights gave us a good battle. However, the Bears put down the St. Francis bid in the closing minutes with clutch shooting by Tony Arvanitis and Howard Komives. Komives chalked up 21 points and Bob Brighton tossed in 10.

The hustling Cowboys pulled a stunning upset as the Polar Bears' offense lacked its usual high-scoring punch. Libbey built up its margin in the second quarter when the Cowboys outscored the Bears by 8 points. Howard Komives with 17 markers and Terry Provonsha with 9 paced the Woodward scoring.

WOODWARD—42 CENTRAL CATHOLIC—54

For the first half the Polar Bears displayed outstanding basketball as they chalked up a 25-13 lead over the team that was ranked third in the state. However, in the third period the experienced Central crew cut the lead to. 2 points. In the last quarter the Bears had trouble with the rugged Central offense, and the Irish gained the victory. Howard Komives led the Bears with 14 points.

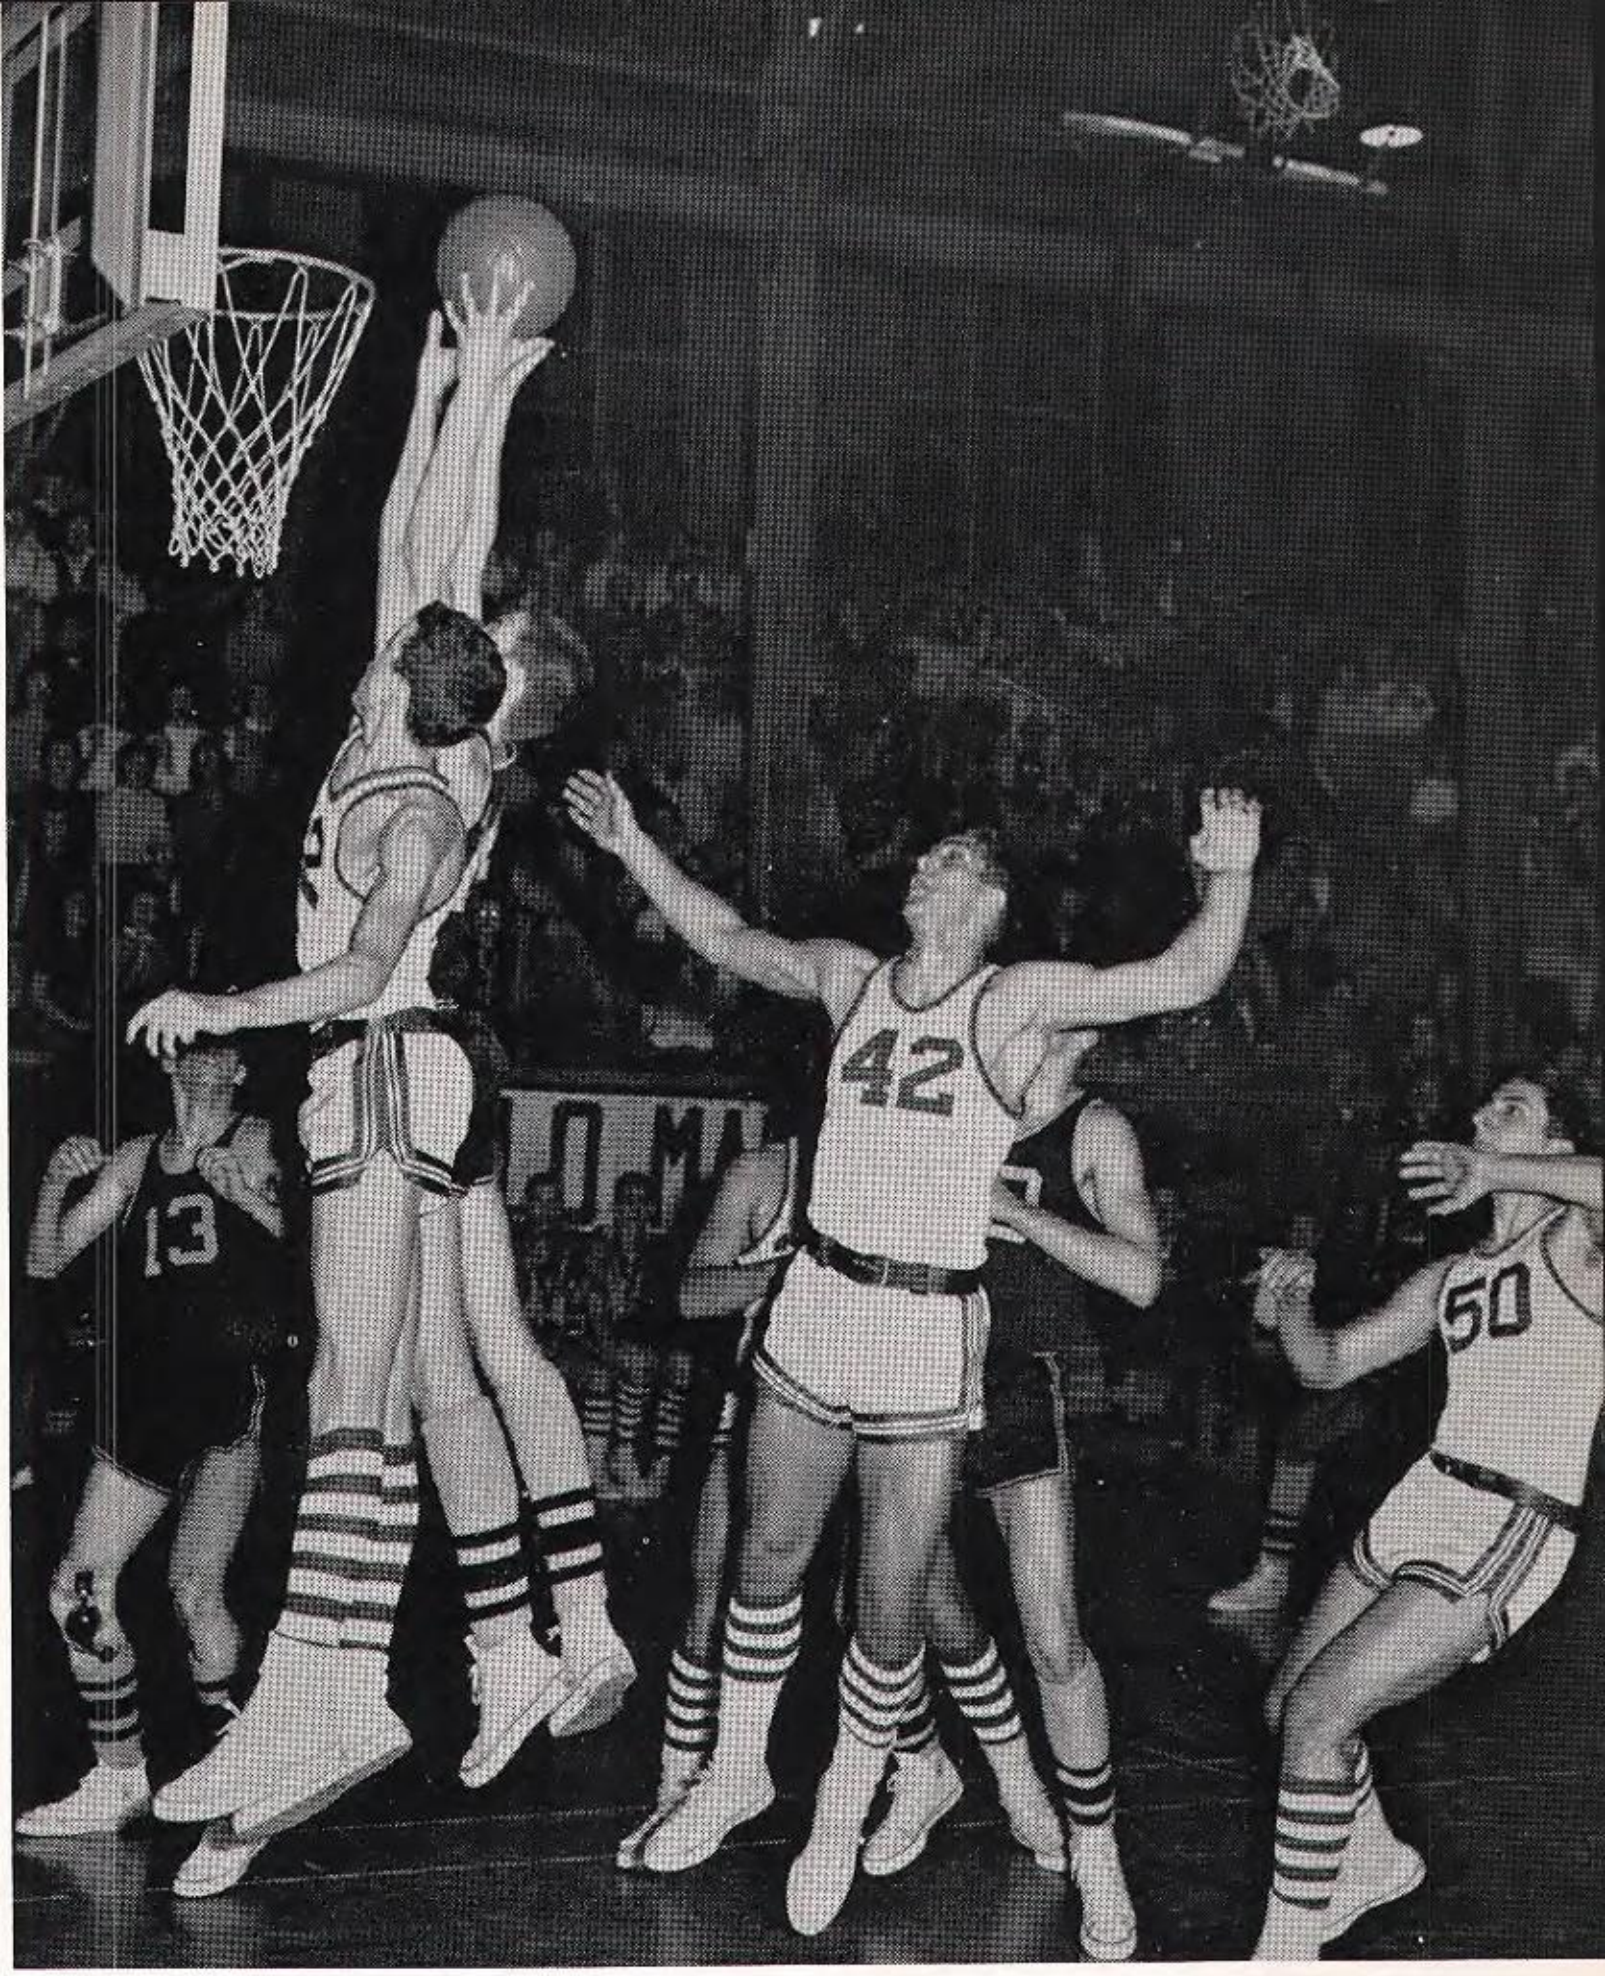
WOODWARD—49 MACOMBER—43

The Polar Bears built up a 26-18 lead in the first half. However, Macomber started to get hot in the third quarter and went ahead by a few points. Woodward took charge in the last period and sank 18 points to put the game in the bag. Howard Komives and Terry Provonsha netted 14 points each to pace the Bears.

WOODWARD—63 DEVILBISS—39

The Polar Bears moved into undisputed possession of third place as they invaded the Tigers' lair to gain a 63-39 win. After a slow first period, Woodward clamped down to gain a 23-15 halftime advantage. The Bears really started to growl in the second half as they pumped up the winning margin to 24 points. The Polar Bears were sparked by Howard Komives's 30 points and Terry Provonsha's 16.



Bob Brighton snags the ball in a game with Macomber while Don Kornowa and Tony Arvanitis look on approvingly.

WOODWARD—41 SCOTT—55

After a fairly close first period, the Bears trailed the Bulldogs by 4 points. Woodward, paced by Howard Komives's 18-point first half, battled back and was down by only one point at halftime. Although the Polar Bears put up a hustling defense, Scott was able to clinch the game with a last quarter rally. Komives finished with 21 markers, while Bob Brighton and John Gregory each connected for 6.

WOODWARD—64 CANTON LEHMAN—78

Seeking a win in Canton, the Polar Bears raced to a 17-12 first quarter advantage. After a closely fought second period, Woodward had a 35-32 lead. In the third quarter, the Lehman quintet started to roll and built up their winning margin. During the last period each team scored 24 points. The Bears were paced by Howard Komives with 24, Henry Lewis with 18, and Don Kornowa with 14.

Won 5, Lost 7

Last year the baseball team won five out of ten league games. Some good players from last year's team have graduated, but plenty of new talent is available. The team will be built around the group of returning veterans pictured on this page. These boys will supply good pitching, solid hitting, snappy fielding, and plenty of hustle. Combined with the new talent, these factors will give Woodward a strong baseball team.

The girls' physical education department continued to progress as it provided a well-knit program for the 1958-59 gym classes. In keeping with the popular trends, the gym instructors added hula-hooping, speedball, and ice skating to the roster. As in previous years, the girls' intramural sports tournaments will be remembered by participants and spectators alike as ones filled with fun and frolic. This gym program provided physical exercise along with opportunities for developing qualities of leadership and sportsmanship.

WOODWARD ALMA MATER

Alma Mater Woodward High School,
Colors white and blue.
Polar Bears we claim as mascot,
Proud we are of you.

Lift our colors to the heavens!
Let them wave on high.
Hail to thee, Our Alma Mater,
Hail to Woodward High.
